Introduction and hotel location

The Hotel Páv dates back to the year 1806, when it was called "U tří kosu"- according to the sign above the door. It was built by an unknown architect in the early classicism style, who was obviously heavily influenced by the art of ancient Greece and Rome. Hotel

Páv is ideally situated on the border of Old and New Town, right in the heart of historical Prague. Just a few steps away from most of Prague's historical monuments and the very useful tram 22! The well-known brewery "U Fleku" is in the neighbourhood of the Hotel Páv.
